

Cookie Policy

Last updated: July 26, 2024

This Cookie Policy is designed to tell you about our practices regarding the collection of information through cookies and other tracking technologies (like gifs, web beacons, etc.). The functionalities for which we use these technologies may include the following:

- Assisting you in navigation,
- Assisting in registering for our events, login, and your ability to provide feedback,
- Analyzing the use of our products, services or applications,
- Assisting with our promotional and marketing efforts (including behavioral advertising),
- Offering content of third parties (such as social media content).

Below is a detailed list of the cookies we use, with a description. We classify cookies in the following categories:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies
- Performance Cookies
- Functional Cookies
- Targeting Cookies

Except where allowed by applicable law, we place cookies after having received your consent through the cookie banner or preference center. You can change your cookie settings per cookie category (except for strictly necessary cookies that are required for the proper functioning of the site) at any time by clicking on the “cookie settings” button below:

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you, which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the site will then not work.

Targeting Cookies

These cookies may be set through our site by our advertising partners. They may be used by those companies to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites. They do not store directly personal information, but are based on uniquely identifying your browser and internet device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.
